

Ballet Victoria Newsletter – Feb. 7 to 13, 2017

Happy Family Day! All of us at Ballet Victoria thank you for being part of our BV family!

Honour your special Valentine with tickets to our upcoming performance of “A Midsummer Night's Dream and New Canadian Works”

Details at: <https://www.balletvictoria.ca/current-season/>

Performances are:

March 14 at 7:30 pm (Victoria)

March 15 at 7:30 pm (Victoria)

On Tour:

March 11 at 7:30 pm (Duncan)

March 25 at 7:30 pm (North Vancouver)

March 31 at 7:30 pm (Courtenay)

Meet the Dancer:

Geneva Frampton was born and raised in Vancouver, BC. After being a competitive gymnast, she studied ballet at Pro Arte Center and was selected to join the CatchingART Contemporary Ballet Company. Geneva completed both her (RAD) and (ISTD) Advanced 2 ballet examinations and her (AFSA) Associate Teachers 1 examination certificate. She attended L'École Supérieure de Ballet du Québec in Montreal last season. This is first season with Ballet Victoria.

This week on Facebook:

Having just toured through Alberta in December, Monday's snow was nothing for the BV dancers who performed at South Park and Colwood Elementary School. The show must go on!

Tea for Tutu - March 7 & 8, 2017

2:00 to 3:00 pm at the Kirk Hall, 680 Courtney St.

By donation for adults, free for seniors and children.

Ballet Victoria delights seniors and children with 45 minutes of free ballet performances in a friendly community atmosphere with tea donated by our sponsors Thrifty Foods and Serious Coffee.

It is an opportunity for the audience to enjoy a preview of the upcoming performances and to interact with the dancers.

The program for each event includes:

- An introduction to ballet
- The story of the creation of new works
- A preview of the upcoming production
- Tea, refreshments, and meet the dancers

For reservation & questions: Phone: 250-380-6063 or
Email: attendance@balletvictoria.ca