

BALLET VICTORIA

Ballet for the 21st Century

Ballet Victoria Technical and Hospitality Rider

Crew (estimated):

Load in – Three to Four crew (as required)

Show call – lighting, sound, (2 to 4 crew, as required)

Basic schedule

Load in day:

Set up and cueing 4-5 hours (day preceding performance)

Performance day:

Class and on-stage rehearsal 4 hours (typically 1 to 5 pm) - subject to change

Show call and strike 4 hours (typically 6:30 pm to 10:30 pm with 7:30pm curtain)- subject to change

Dancers should have access to backstage during the break.

Show run (2 Acts) typically 40-45 minutes per act, with a 20 minutes intermission.

Technical requirements:

Ballet Victoria will require a lighting plot as well as a magic sheet for the theatre's lighting grid

Ballet Victoria's lighting director will contact the theatre's technical director with the lighting requirements for the show (colours, specials effects, etc.)

Black, scrim and eye (depending on availability)

Lighting:

House pre-hang, focus and colour as specified by the lighting designer/director

Ballet Victoria will bring its own side kit with colours and other lighting instruments, projectors, hazer, etc. as required.

Stage:

Clean floor

Ballet Victoria can provide its own Marley dance floor if required.

Audio:

Plug-in for sound feed from computer (QLab), from stage right by stage manager

One wireless microphone for pre-show speech

Wireless lapel microphone if required for performance (singing)

Stage monitors

Clean console for Stage Manager

Wardrobe:

Steamer, iron and ironing board

Laundry access (washer and dryer)

BALLET BV VICTORIA

Ballet for the 21st Century

Dressing rooms:

Two dressing rooms (men's and women's)

Hospitality:

For dancers and crew (12 people) the presenter can provide snacks and beverages (fruits, vegetables, cookies, cheese, crackers, water and juices).

Lobby:

The company will require one table for merchandise that a member of the theatre staff can take charge of. The theatre will keep a percentage of the sales as required.

Parking:

The company will require parking for a one-ton truck and two passenger minivans.

Contacts

Paul Destrooper
Artistic Director
Ballet Victoria
E-mail: Destrooper@balletvictoria.ca
Mobile: 250-896-7670
Work: 250-380-6063

Jason King
Stage Manager
E-mail: shoestringfilmworks@gmail.com
Mobile: 250-589-7463

BALLET VICTORIA

PO BOX 8877 • VICTORIA, BC • V8W 3Z1
p: 250-380-6063 f: 866-735-0185 e: info@balletvictoria.ca
www.balletvictoria.ca