“Carmina Burana”

Carl Orff's epic choral masterpiece is one of the most popular musical works ever written. The poetic and dramatic texts will be sung by the 140 voice choir of the Victoria Choral Society and played by musicians of the Victoria Symphony under the baton of Maestro Brian Wismath. The powerful musically driven choreography will leave you breathless and emotionally charged.

Meet the dancer Erin Doherty! Erin started dance classes at the age of 5 in London, Ontario at Dance Steps. Her eagerness to expand both her technique and artistry took her to several summer intensives growing up as well as a year at @The Rock School for Dance Education. Upon graduating, she was accepted in the Professional Graduate Program at the Alberta Ballet School for 2 years to complete her training. Erin visited Victoria to attend Ballet Victoria Conservatory's summer intensive in 2017 and immediately fell in love with the city. Currently in her 2nd year as an aspirant with the company, Erin's determination and drive for success still holds true. In her free time, Erin loves to bake, journal, and ride her bike near the ocean!

This week on Social Media:

Dancers and staff at Ballet Victoria come from all around the world (we have a few missing in the picture)!
