

4 new creations that explore humanity in all its forms. Racing in the Rain to S. O'Loughlin's score captures the excitement of new beginnings, while Quanz's Wistful to Rachmaninov's classic Vocalise shows how love is eternal even as we grow apart. Polovtsian Dances to Borodin's Prince Igor expresses the intensity and power of warring groups. Finally, follow the journey of The Little Prince as he travels through the universe and tells tales of his planet and the wonderful, mysterious, and enlightening people he meets along the way.

October, 2020

Ballet Victoria brings back a holiday classic with a twist. Set to Tchaikovsky's timeless score, The Nutcracker follows Clara's adventures as she dances with a dragon, enchanted dolls, and the Sugar Plum Fairy in a world of fantasy and magic. Let your imagination run wild in this festive program sure to enchant the whole family.

December, 2020

Ballet Victoria presents a new work by Philippe A. Jacques. Set to Gjeilo's Sunrise Mass, it explores mankind's resilience and heroics when facing misfortune. With Bizet's iconic score, Carmen recounts the dramatic tale of freedom and passion in a one act ballet. Carmen explores love and adversity through visceral choreography, creating an emotionally compelling production.

March, 2021

Experience the passion of first love and the turmoil of heartbreak in Ballet Victoria's interpretation of Romeo and Juliet to Prokofiev's celebrated score. Spectacular dancing, dramatic swordplay and powerful music bring the story of this Shakespearean tragedy and its star-crossed lovers to life.

May, 2021