

Unboxing the Holidays!

It's that time of the year again! The crisp air is coming in, the decorations are coming out and the warmth of the holidays is almost upon us. One of our favourite times of the year is unwrapping "The Gift of The Nutcracker". We are unboxing our gorgeous costumes and engaging characters for our revered audiences.

Rooted in the classical ballet tradition, The Gift of The Nutcracker boasts contemporary flair and original ideas that thrill audiences internationally. It holds the magic and cheer of the Holiday season especially with the Victoria Symphony playing Tchaikovsky's timeless score.

Give the gift of tickets this holiday season!
