

New Roles, New Challenges, Familiar Magic

As The Gift of The Nutcracker comes around the corner, a new season brings both familiar magic and exciting new opportunities for our dancers. For many, returning to The Nutcracker means revisiting beloved roles and familiar choreography, building on past experience, refining technique, and finding new ways to elevate the quality and artistry of each performance.

For others, it's a chance to step into a new role, explore different characters, develop partnering skills, and push themselves artistically beyond the season before. Whether returning to a familiar role or embracing a new challenge, each season brings opportunities for growth and discovery. As rehearsals begin and we prepare for our tour performances, we look forward to sharing some of this season's exciting casting announcements!

The magic is returning, and we can't wait to share what's in store. Secure your tickets today!

Step into the Dream

Step into the enchanting world of The Gift of The Nutcracker, where the magic of the season comes alive through breathtaking dance, beautiful storytelling, and over 150 stunning costumes! Behind every stitch, embellishment, and finishing touch is the incredible work of Jane Wood, who creates every costume in the show.

Each costume piece is thoughtfully designed to complement the scene and capture the spirit of the dance. These costumes are more than beautiful garments — they help turn imagination into reality and bring the dream of The Gift of The Nutcracker to life.
